DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

1. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

2. This application currently names joint inventors. In considering patentability of the claims under 35 U.S.C. 103(a), the examiner presumes that the subject matter of the various claims was commonly owned at the time any inventions covered therein were made absent any evidence to the contrary. Applicant is advised of the obligation under 37 CFR 1.56 to point out the inventor and invention dates of each claim that was not commonly owned at the time a later invention was made in order for the examiner to consider the applicability of 35 U.S.C. 103(c) and potential 35 U.S.C. 102(e), (f) or (g) prior art under 35 U.S.C. 103(a).

3. Claims 1-4 and 31 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Irish USP 4,324,511 in view of Cedergren USP 4,273,478.

Irish teaches a cylindrical tube carrier 35, a lid 26 with an aperture 45 at one end of the carrier, a base 30 removably mounted to a second end allowing access to the carrier when the base is moved. Irish fails to disclose a lock for retaining the base in place. Cedergren teaches a tube carrier 10, with a locking base 16, 24, 28 at one end. It would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to utilize a locking base in lieu of/or as an addition to the lid 26 of Irish, since it is known to use locks to provide a level of security to prevent unwanted access to a tube carrier. RE claim 31, whether a one or a well know dual key lock does not further distinguish a patentable departure.

RE claim 4, Irish in view of Cedergren teaches every claimed feature except for a manual shutter mechanism for opening and closing the aperture on the carrier. It would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to provide a shutter mechanism (for example, the lid on a sugar dispenser with an aperture and a flip lid/shutter) since carrier tubes are well know and a simple shutter mechanism is not a patentable departure over the above references as opening and closing shutters come in many shapes and forms. The claimed shutter mechanism is only adapted to move between an open and closed position which is exactly what the shutter of a sugar dispenser does.

Allowable Subject Matter

4. Claims 32 and 33 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

Conclusion

5. Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
